

Isleton Mayor and Council,

This letter serves as my resignation from the Isleton city council. I have a lot of public support to remain seated but unfortunately some council and staff members clearly have a different opinion. It seems that by remaining on council my presence will continue to be a distraction from the multitude of more important matters that council and staff should be focusing on.

I had high hopes for the city and tried to help. Clearly there are forces that always seem to have this beloved town in its grip, I hope some of you are able to loosen it more.

Best
